

Tasks Oral Exam

- 1) Please study the passage on the other sheet closely. You may take notes on the sheets.
- 2) Select a short part of the passage to read aloud. Say why you chose it and what we can see from it.
- 3) Locate the events/situation in the passage within the plot.
- 4) Comment on the characters mentioned and further characters that you would like to discuss in connection with this passage.
- 5) Comment on the zeitgeist which underlies your novel/play, (if possible) with particular reference to this passage.
What values, problems, political situations, attitudes towards life, etc. are presented?
Are they typical for the time when the plot is set (or when the novel/play was written)?
- 6) Optional:
Think of a question, ideally about the passage, you would like to ask the author if you could talk to him/her personally.
Can you imagine his/her possible answer(s)?
